MANAGEMENT PROXY CIRCULAR

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES BY MANAGEMENT

This Management Proxy Circular (the “Circular”) is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of IBEX Technologies Inc. (“IBEX” or the “Corporation”) for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Meeting”) of IBEX, to be held at the time and for the purposes set out in the Notice of Meeting and all adjournments thereof. The solicitation will be made primarily by mail. However, officers and employees of IBEX may also solicit proxies by telephone, telecopier, e-mail or in person. The total cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by IBEX. Pursuant to National Instrument 54-101 Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer (“NI 54-101”), arrangements have been made with clearing agencies, brokerage houses and other financial intermediaries to forward proxy-related materials to certain beneficial owners of the shares. See “Appointment and Revocation of Proxies – Notice to Beneficial Holders of Shares” below.

Except as otherwise stated, the information contained herein is given as of November 28, 2016.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY OF PROXY MATERIALS

Notice-and-Access

The Corporation has elected to use “notice-and-access” rules (“Notice-and-Access”) under National Instrument 54-101 Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer (“NI 54-101”) for distribution of Proxy-Related Materials (as defined below) to shareholders who do not hold shares of the Corporation in their own names (referred to herein as “Beneficial Shareholders”). Notice-and-Access is a set of rules that allows issuers to post electronic versions of proxy-related materials on SEDAR and on one additional website, rather than mailing paper copies. “Proxy-Related Materials” refers to this Circular, the Notice of Meeting, a voting instruction form and the Corporation’s audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2016 and the related Management’s Discussion and Analysis.

The use of Notice-and-Access is more environmentally friendly as it helps reduce paper use. It also reduces the Corporation’s printing and mailing costs. Beneficial Shareholders may obtain further information about Notice-and-Access by contacting: (i) for Beneficial Shareholders with a 15-digit Control Number: Computershare Investor Services Inc. toll free at 1-866-962-0498 (within North America) or 514-982-8716 (outside North America); or (ii) for Beneficial Shareholders with a 16-digit Control Number: Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. toll free at 1-877-907-7643 or 905-507-5450 (outside North America).

The Corporation is not using Notice-and-Access for delivery to shareholders who hold their shares directly in their respective names (referred to herein as “Registered Shareholders”). Registered Shareholders will receive paper copies of this Circular, related materials and the Corporation’s audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2016 and the related Management’s Discussion and Analysis via prepaid mail.

Websites Where Proxy-Related Materials are Posted

The Proxy-Related Materials are available on the Corporation’s website at www.ibex.ca and under the Corporation’s profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Notice Package

Although the Proxy-Related Materials have been posted on-line as noted above, Beneficial Shareholders will receive paper copies of a notice package via prepaid mail containing information prescribed by NI 54-101 such as: the date, time and location of the Meeting, the website addresses where the Proxy-Related Materials are posted, a voting instruction form, and supplemental mail list return card for Beneficial Shareholders to request they be included in the Corporation's supplementary mailing list for receipt of the Corporation's interim financial statements for the 2017 fiscal year.

How to Obtain Paper Copies of Proxy-Related Materials

Beneficial Shareholders may obtain paper copies of this Circular and the Corporation's audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2016 and the related Management's Discussion and Analysis free of charge by contacting: (i) for Beneficial Shareholders with a 15-digit Control Number: Computershare Investor Services Inc. toll free at 1-866-962-0498 (within North America) or 514-982-8716 (outside North America); or (ii) for Beneficial Shareholders with a 16-digit Control Number: Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. toll free at 1-877-907-7643 or 905-507-5450 (outside North America). Any request for paper copies which are required in advance of the Meeting should be sent so that the request is received by the Corporation by January 11, 2017 in order to allow sufficient time for Beneficial Shareholders to receive their paper copies and to return their voting instruction form by its due date.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Appointment of Proxy

A shareholder who is unable to attend the Meeting in person is requested to complete and sign the enclosed form of proxy and to deliver it to Computershare Investor Services Inc. by mail or hand delivery to Proxy Department, 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1. A shareholder may also vote using the internet at www.investorvote.com or by telephone at 1-866-732-8683. In order to be valid and acted upon at the Meeting, the form of proxy must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. (eastern time) on January 23, 2017 or be deposited with the Secretary of the Corporation before the commencement of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The document appointing a proxy must be in writing and executed by the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing or, if the shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized.

A shareholder submitting a form of proxy has the right to appoint a person (who does not need to be a shareholder of the Corporation) to represent him or her at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the form of proxy furnished by the Corporation. To exercise that right, the name of the shareholder's appointee should be legibly printed in the blank space provided. In addition, the shareholder should notify the appointee of the appointment, obtain his or her consent to act as appointee and instruct the appointee on how the shareholder's shares are to be voted.

Shareholders who are not registered shareholders should refer to "Notice to Beneficial Holders of Shares" below.

Revocation of Proxy

A shareholder who has submitted a form of proxy as directed hereunder may revoke it at any time prior to the exercise thereof. If a person who has given a proxy personally attends the Meeting at which that proxy is to be voted, that person may revoke the proxy and vote in person. In addition to the revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a proxy may be revoked by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or his attorney or authorized agent and deposited with Computershare Investor Services Inc. at any time up to 5:00 p.m. (eastern time) on January 23, 2017 by mail or by hand delivery to Proxy Department, 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1, or deposited with the Secretary of the Company before the commencement of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of those deposits, the proxy will be revoked.

Notice to Beneficial Holders of Shares

The information set out in this section is of importance to many shareholders, as a substantial number of shareholders do not hold shares of the Corporation in their own name. Beneficial Shareholders should note that only proxies deposited by shareholders whose names appear on the records of the Corporation as the registered holders of shares can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof. If shares are listed in an account statement provided to a shareholder by a broker, then in almost all cases those shares will not be registered in the shareholder's name on the records of the Corporation. Those shares will more likely be registered under the name of the shareholder's broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc., which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). Shares held by brokers or their nominees can be voted (for or against resolutions or withheld from voting) only upon the instructions of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, the broker/nominees are prohibited from voting shares for their clients. Subject to the following discussion in relation to NOBOs (as defined below), the Corporation does not know for whose benefit the shares of the Corporation registered in the name of CDS & Co., a broker or another nominee, are held.

There are two categories of Beneficial Shareholders under applicable securities regulations for purposes of dissemination to Beneficial Shareholders of proxy-related materials and other securityholder materials and requests for voting instructions from such Beneficial Shareholders. Non-objecting beneficial owners ("NOBOs") are Beneficial Shareholders who have advised their intermediary (such as brokers or other nominees) that they do not object to their intermediary disclosing ownership information to the Corporation, consisting of their name, address, e-mail address, securities holdings and preferred language of communication. Securities legislation restricts the use of that information to matters strictly relating to the affairs of the Corporation. Objecting beneficial owners ("OBOs") are Beneficial Shareholders who have advised their intermediary that they object to their intermediary disclosing such ownership information to the Corporation.

In accordance with the requirements of NI 54-101, the Corporation is sending the Notice and Access Document and a voting instruction form or form of proxy, as applicable (collectively, the "Meeting Materials"), directly to NOBOs and indirectly through intermediaries to OBOs. NI 54-101 allows the Corporation, in its discretion, to obtain a list of its NOBOs from intermediaries and to use such NOBO list for the purpose of distributing the Meeting Materials directly to, and seeking voting instructions directly from, such NOBOs. As a result, the Corporation is entitled to deliver Meeting Materials to Beneficial Shareholders in two manners: (a) directly to NOBOs and indirectly through intermediaries to OBOs; or (b) indirectly to all Beneficial Shareholders through intermediaries. The cost of the delivery of the Meeting Materials by intermediaries to OBOs will be borne by the Corporation.

The Corporation has used a NOBO list to send the Meeting Materials directly to NOBOs whose names appear on that list. If the Corporation's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc., has sent these materials directly to a NOBO, such NOBO's name and address and information about its holdings of common shares of the Corporation have been obtained from the intermediary holding such shares on the NOBO's behalf in accordance with applicable securities regulations. As a result, any NOBO of the Corporation can expect to receive a voting instruction form from Computershare Investor Services Inc. NOBOs should complete and return the voting instruction form to Computershare Investor Services Inc. in the envelope provided. In addition, telephone voting and internet voting are available; instructions in respect of the procedure for telephone and internet voting can be found on the voting instruction form. Computershare Investor Services Inc. will tabulate the results of voting instruction forms received from NOBOs and will provide appropriate instructions at the Meeting with respect to the shares represented by such voting instruction forms.

Applicable securities regulations require intermediaries, on receipt of Meeting Materials that seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders indirectly, to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of shareholders' meetings on Form 54-101F7. Every intermediary/broker has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their shares are voted at the Meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof. Often, the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Shareholder by its broker is identical to the form of proxy provided to registered shareholders; however, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered shareholder how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder. Beneficial Shareholders who wish to appear in person and vote at the Meeting should be appointed as their own representatives at the Meeting in accordance with the directions of their intermediaries and Form 54-101F7. Beneficial Shareholders can also write the name of someone else whom they wish to appoint to attend the Meeting and vote on their behalf. Unless prohibited by law, the person whose name is written in the space provided in Form 54-101F7 will have full authority to present matters to the Meeting and vote on all matters that are presented at the Meeting, even if those matters are not set out in Form 54-101F7 or this Management Proxy Circular. The majority of brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. ("Broadridge"). Broadridge typically mails a voting instruction form in lieu of a form of proxy. Beneficial Shareholders are requested to complete and return the voting instruction form to Broadridge by mail or facsimile. Alternatively, Beneficial Shareholders can call a toll-free telephone number to vote the shares held by them or access Broadridge’s dedicated voting website at <https://central-online.proxyvote.com> to deliver their voting instructions. Broadridge will then provide aggregate voting instructions to the Corporation’s transfer agent and registrar, which will tabulate the results and provide appropriate instructions respecting the voting of shares to be represented at the Meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof.

EXERCISE OF DISCRETION BY PROXIES

Shares represented by properly-executed proxies in favour of the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy, in the absence of any direction to the contrary, will be voted for: (i) the election of directors; and (ii) the appointment of auditors, as stated under such headings in the Circular. Instructions with respect to voting will be respected by the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy. With respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting and with respect to other matters which may properly come before the Meeting, such shares will be voted by the persons so designated in their discretion. At the time of printing this Circular, management of the Corporation knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters. All matters will be decided by a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon.

VOTING SHARES

As at November 28, 2016, there were 24,703,244 common shares of IBEX issued and outstanding. Each common share entitles the holder thereof to one vote. The Corporation has fixed November 28, 2016 as the record date (the “Record Date”) for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of the Meeting. Pursuant to the Canada Business Corporations Act (the “CBCA”), the Corporation is required to prepare, no later than ten days after the Record Date, an alphabetical list of shareholders entitled to vote as of the Record Date that shows the number of shares held by each shareholder. A shareholder whose name appears on the list referred to above is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his, her or its name at the Meeting. The list of shareholders is available for inspection during usual business hours at the head office of the Corporation and at the Meeting.

PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDER

As at November 28, 2016, to the best knowledge of the Corporation, the following is the only person who beneficially owned, or exercised control or direction over, directly or indirectly, more than 10% of the common shares of the Corporation:

STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Mandate and Composition of the Compensation Committee and Compensation Governance

The Board of Directors has established a Compensation Committee to review and recommend to the Board of Directors for approval the remuneration of directors and executive officers. The Compensation Committee's primary role and responsibility concerns human resources and compensation policies and processes. The Compensation Committee considers time commitment, comparative fees and responsibilities in determining remuneration.

The Compensation Committee is composed of Thomas O. Hecht, Robert J. DeLuccia and Danilo Netto, each of whom is an independent director according to the definition of "independence" set out in National Instrument 52-110 (as hereinafter defined) as it applies to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors believes that these directors have the knowledge, experience and background to fulfil their mandate.

If the Compensation Committee determines it necessary, it may investigate and review any human resources or compensation matter. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain outside experts and, with the approval of the Corporate Governance Committee, engage special legal counsel.

Operationally, measurable corporate and executive objectives are established annually in line with the Corporation's strategic plan. Performance is then assessed by the Compensation Committee against the measurable objectives. The Compensation Committee does not consider any specific risk associated with its compensation policies and practices.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

IBEX's executive compensation is based on the belief that the interests of its executive officers and shareholders should be closely aligned with one another. Under this philosophy:

- a significant portion of each executive officer's total compensation is linked directly to the attainment of personal objectives that are intended to create value for shareholders in both the short and long-term;
- executive officers are incentivized to improve IBEX's overall performance and profitability and will be rewarded only when the specific goals established by the Compensation Committee (for the President and Chief Executive Officer and, based on the recommendations of the President and Chief Executive Officer, for other executive officers) have been achieved;
- each year, an executive officer's individual performance and contribution will be rewarded through differentiated salary adjustments and bonus paid, if any; and
- executive officers are prohibited from hedging securities of IBEX that they beneficially own, or over which they exercise control or direction, directly or indirectly, including trading in publicly traded options, puts, calls or other derivative instruments related to IBEX's securities.

Thus, the primary objectives pursued by the Compensation Committee in reviewing annually the Corporation's compensation to executive officers are to:

- retain and motivate leadership talent needed to maintain the organization and grow the business successfully;
- link a significant portion of each executive officer's total compensation directly to the attainment of personal objectives that are intended to create value for shareholders in both the short and long-term;
- incentivize executive officers to improve overall corporation performance and profitability through short and long-term reward programs; and
- provide long-term incentive opportunities to ensure that management's interests are aligned with those of the shareholders through share-price performance.

Compensation Consultant

The Corporation does not currently use the services of a compensation consultant and has not used any such services at any time since its most recently-completed financial year.

Peer Group

A comparison of remuneration with similar companies in the pharmaceutical industry (the "Peer Group") was performed during 2016 by the Compensation Committee. The Peer Group was composed of the following companies:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| - Antibe Therapeutics Inc. | - bioMmune Technologies Inc. |
| - BlueOcean NutraSciences Inc. | - DiaMedica Inc. |
| - Kane Biotech Inc. | - Quest Pharmatech Inc. |
| - Revive Therapeutics Ltd. | - Sirona Biochem Corp. |

Compensation of Executive Officers

Determining Executive Officer Compensation

The four main components to an executive officer's compensation are (i) salary, (ii) bonus, (iii) option grants, and (iv) other benefits.

In determining the proper amount for each compensation component, the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation paid for similar positions at companies in the Peer Group. Each year the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation paid to IBEX's top executive officers, including the President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as their corporate performance and other factors in determining the appropriate performance measures and compensation levels.

(i) Base Salary

Under IBEX's compensation program, the Compensation Committee establishes a range of base salaries for the President and Chief Executive Officer, after having reviewed and analyzed the salaries paid to presidents and chief executive officers occupying similar positions and performing similar functions at companies within the Peer Group and, upon its recommendation, the Board of Directors fixes his specific salary from within that range based upon (i) the attainment of his personal objectives and (ii) IBEX's global corporate performance. For the financial year ended July 31, 2016, the President and Chief Executive Officer's annual base salary was $311,009. However, as part of IBEX's ongoing restructuring, Mr. Baehr has elected to waive $125,000 of this amount.

For IBEX's other executive officers, the President and Chief Executive Officer recommends the range of base salaries for each individual executive to the Compensation Committee, which then recommends to the Board of Directors the specific salary within that range for each individual executive based upon (i) the attainment of a given executive officer's personal objectives and (ii) his or her contribution to IBEX's global corporate performance, each in the most recently-completed financial year.

(ii) Bonus Awards

All executive officers are eligible to receive annual bonus awards. Payment, if any, is based principally on the profitability of the Corporation and secondarily on performance as compared to the objectives established in advance by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee may choose to make adjustments to awards to reflect the impact of unplanned events.

The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, has also decided that, based upon a review of bonuses paid to the presidents and chief executive officers of the companies forming the Peer Group, IBEX's President and Chief Executive Officer will be eligible to receive an annual bonus equal to a maximum of 33% of his annual base salary. Every year, the Compensation Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the specific amount of the bonus award, if any, to be paid to the President and Chief Executive Officer based upon (i) the profitability of the Corporation and (ii) the attainment of personal objectives, each in the most recently-completed financial year. For the financial year ended July 31, 2016, a bonus was awarded to the President and Chief Executive Officer, as the Corporation achieved a bonus-eligible level of profitability.

The determination of bonus awards for the other executive officers of the Corporation is based on the same underlying philosophy as that for determining salaries. The President and Chief Executive Officer reviews and analyzes the bonuses paid to executives occupying similar positions and performing similar functions at the companies within the Peer Group. Every year, the President and Chief Executive Officer assesses the performance of each individual executive officer, and makes his recommendations to the Compensation Committee; the Compensation Committee then reviews and analyzes the recommendations of the President and Chief Executive Officer and presents them to the Board of Directors, which in turn votes on such recommendations. The maximum amount of any bonus award to be paid to each individual executive officer is based (i) on the profitability of the Corporation, and (ii) thereafter on the attainment of a given executive officer's personal objectives, each in the most recently-completed financial year. In accordance with recommendations of the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors has decided that, based upon its review of bonuses paid to executives of companies forming the Peer Group, IBEX's Director of Finance and Secretary is eligible to receive an annual bonus equal to 20% of his annual base salary.

(iii) Option Grants

All executive officers are also eligible to be considered for stock option grants under the IBEX Plan (as hereinafter defined). IBEX believes that stock options provide value in three ways: (i) by closely aligning management interests with those of shareholders vis-à-vis share price performance; (ii) by acting as a means to attract high-potential executives in competition to larger, more established companies; and (iii) by having long-term retention value. When, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors grants options, it follows competitive long-term incentive compensation practices such that the size and value of these grants are intended to place IBEX's executive officers, including its President and Chief Executive Officer, in a competitive position as compared to the estimated value of the options granted to executive officers occupying similar positions and performing similar functions at companies within the Peer Group.

When the Compensation Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the size of new grants to each executive officer, it considers several factors which are benchmarked with similar positions in the Peer Group, including the number of shares underlying the grant, the size of the grant as a percentage of all grants, the long-term incentive value of the grant, and the level of potential ownership in the Corporation the grant represents. All options granted by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee to IBEX's executive officers vest immediately.

(iv) Other Benefits

The Corporation does not offer pension benefits to its executive officers. Perquisites and personal benefits are provided to executive officers based on competitive practices, business needs and specific circumstances.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table sets out compensation information for the fiscal years ended July 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014 for each person who acted as President and Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer and the three most highly-compensated executive officers (or three most highly-compensated individuals acting in a similar capacity) other than the President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, whose total compensation was more than $150,000 in the Corporation's last financial year (each a "Named Executive Officer" and collectively the "Named Executive Officers"). For the fiscal year ended July 31, 2016, the only Named Executive Officers were the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer.

Termination and Change of Control Benefits

IBEX entered into an employment agreement effective November 1, 1997 with Paul Baehr. The agreement provided for the employment of Mr. Baehr for an initial term expiring on November 1, 2001. The term of Mr. Baehr's employment agreement was subsequently extended on numerous occasions, including on September 25, 2006, at which time it was decided that effective November 1, 2006, rather than to renew the employment agreement annually, the agreement would be amended to include a provision for an 18-month severance. The November 1, 2006 amended agreement provides for the payment of an annual base salary of $250,000 and certain benefits, including the reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, the use of an automobile and participation in the Corporation's benefits plan.

On November 1, 2015, Mr. Baehr's base salary was raised to $311,009. However, as part of IBEX's ongoing restructuring, Mr. Baehr has elected to waive $125,000 of this latter amount. As of July 31, 2016, his salary was $186,009.

In the event of termination of Mr. Baehr's employment due to a change in control of the Corporation, Mr. Baehr will be entitled to: (i) an amount equal to two year's base salary; and (ii) continuation of any benefits which he has at the time of termination, for a period of two years from the date of such termination.

The Corporation has an employment agreement for an indeterminate term with Richard Collin, which provides for a base salary which is reviewed annually, and a severance payment equal to twelve months' salary in the event of a termination due to a change in control of the Corporation and continuation of any benefits which he had at the time of termination, for a period of six months from the date of such termination.

Assuming that the triggering event for a termination of these agreements due to a change of control of the Corporation had taken place on the last business day of the Corporation's most recently-completed fiscal year, the President and Chief Executive Officer and Director of Finance and Secretary would have received $640,000 and $135,500, respectively.

The Audit Committee is currently composed of Bernard R. Patriacca (Chairman), Danilo Netto and Robert J. DeLuccia. Under National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees of the Canadian Securities Administrators (“National Instrument 52-110”), a director of an audit committee is “independent” if he or she has no direct or indirect material relationship with the issuer, that is, a relationship which could, in the view of the Board of Directors, reasonably be expected to interfere with the exercise of the member’s independent judgment. For the purpose of assessing the independence of a member of an audit committee, National Instrument 52-110 further provides that an individual will be deemed to have a material relationship with an issuer if he or she accepts, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the issuer or any subsidiary entity of the issuer, other than as remuneration for acting in his or her capacity as a member or as part-time chair or vice-chair of the board of directors of the issuer or any committee thereof. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices and National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines of the Canadian Securities Administrators set out a series of guidelines for effective corporate governance. The guidelines address matters such as the composition and independence of corporate boards, the functions to be performed by boards and their committees, and the effectiveness and education of board members. Each reporting issuer, such as IBEX, must disclose on an annual basis and in prescribed form, the corporate governance practices that it has adopted. The following is IBEX’s required annual disclosure of its corporate governance practices.

1. Board of Directors

Disclose how the board of directors (the board) facilitates its exercise of independent supervision over management, including:

- (i) the identity of directors who are independent.
- (ii) the identity of directors who are not independent, and describe the basis for that determination.

The Board of Directors is composed of five directors. The Board of Directors considers that four directors, namely Thomas O. Hecht, Robert J. DeLuccia, Danilo Netto and Bernard R. Patriacca, are independent according to the definition of “independence” set out in National Instrument 52-110 as it applies to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors considers that only one director, Paul Baehr, is not independent, in that he is a senior officer of the Corporation.

2. Directorships

If a director is presently a director of any other issuer that is a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) in a jurisdiction or a foreign jurisdiction, identify both the director and the other issuer.

The following director is currently a director of an issuer that is a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) in a jurisdiction of Canada or a foreign jurisdiction:

Name of Director	Issuer
Robert J. DeLuccia	Dipexium Pharmaceuticals Inc.

3. Orientation and Continuing Education

Describe what steps, if any, the board takes to orient new board members, and describe any measures the board takes to provide continuing education for its directors.

The Corporation provides an orientation program for new appointees to the Board of Directors and various committees in the form of informal meetings with members of the Board and senior management, complemented by presentations on the main areas of the Corporation’s business.

The Board does not formally provide continuing education to its directors. The directors are experienced members, many of whom are or have been directors of other issuers. The Board of Directors relies on professional assistance when judged necessary in order to be educated/updated on a particular topic.

4. Ethical Business Conduct

Describe what steps, if any, the board takes to promote a culture of ethical business conduct.

The Corporation has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics which can be found on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. A copy of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics can also be obtained by contacting the Secretary of the Corporation at 5485 Paré Street, Suite 100, Montréal, Québec H4P 1P7, telephone: (514) 344-4004.

The Corporation formally monitors compliance with the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics as it forms an integral part of an employee’s annual performance evaluation.

The Corporation has a Statement of Shared Values which is provided to each employee upon hiring and which is reviewed at periodic meetings of management and employees.

5. Nomination of Directors

Disclose what steps, if any, are taken to identify new candidates for board nomination, including:

- (i) who identifies new candidates; and*
- (ii) the process for identifying new candidates.*

The Board of Directors has delegated to the Corporate Governance Committee the responsibility for identifying new candidates for Board nomination and proposing such nominees to the Board.

The process by which the Corporate Governance Committee identifies new candidates for board nomination begins with the approval by the Board of an outline of the skills-sets and background which are desired in a new candidate. Board members or management may suggest candidates for consideration by the Corporate Governance Committee. Occasionally a search firm may be employed. Prospective candidates are interviewed by the Chairman and the lead director and by other Board members on an ad hoc basis. An invitation to join the Board is extended only after the Board has reached a consensus on the appropriateness of the candidate.

All of the members of the Corporate Governance Committee are independent according to the definition of “independence” set out in National Instrument 52-110 as it applies to the Board of Directors.

In addition to the responsibilities set out above, the Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for assessing director performance on an on-going basis.

6. Compensation

Disclose what steps, if any, are taken to determine compensation for the directors and CEO including:

- (i) who determines compensation; and*
- (ii) the process of determining compensation.*

The Compensation Committee is mandated to review and recommend to the Board for approval the remuneration of directors. The Compensation Committee considers time commitment, comparative fees and responsibilities in determining remuneration.

With respect to the compensation of the Corporation’s officers, see “Statement of Executive Compensation” above.

The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of independent directors, according to the definition of “independence” set out in National Instrument 52-110 as it applies to the Board of Directors.

The Compensation Committee’s primary role and responsibility concern human resources and compensation policies and processes.

If the Compensation Committee determines it necessary, it may investigate and review any human resources or compensation matter. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain outside experts and, with the approval of the Corporate Governance Committee, engage special legal counsel.

Operationally, measurable corporate and executive objectives are established annually in line with the Corporation’s strategic plan. Performance is then assessed by the Compensation Committee against the measurable objectives.

7. Other Board Committees

If the board has standing committees other than the audit, compensation and nominating committees, identify the committees and describe their function.

Other than the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, the Board has a Corporate Governance Committee. In addition to the functions described in item 5 above, the Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for developing and monitoring the Corporation's policy with respect to corporate governance.

8. Assessments

Disclose what steps, if any, that the board takes to satisfy itself that the board, its committees and individual directors are performing effectively.

The Corporate Governance Committee assesses, by means of an annual questionnaire, the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, its committees and individual directors. The results of the questionnaire are discussed at the appropriate meeting of the Board of Directors.
